Trading Fees

The trading fees cover order book trading, opening auction and closing auction, on financial instruments:

Trading in other financial instruments is currently not supported. For avoidance of doubt, should such other financial instruments be available for trading a separate Trading fee schedule will apply.

Shares, depositary receipts on shares and equity rights

The trading participant can select fee schedule A or B. Change of fee schedule can be done on a quarterly basis. If the trading participant has not selected a fee schedule, schedule A is applied.

Change of fee schedule is reported to trading@spotlightstockmarket.com five days before the following quarter.

However, if the customers themselves are trade participants or if the customer trades, directly or indirect, are made on behalf of trade participants the trades relating to these trade participants ("Customer trade participant") shall be excluded from the total turnover. The fee for the latter described trades relating to Customer trade participants shall then be calculated in accordance with the above-described value-based fee (as if separate trade participants conducted the trades). Notwithstanding the above, it is Spotlight Stock Markets counterpart – the trade participant responsible for the trades and not the Customer trade participant – which shall be responsible for the payment of the aggregated fee to Spotlight Stock Market.

VAT is not included in the fees.

Fees are invoiced monthly, if not otherwise stated.

Trading Fees when trading in DKK, NOK or EUR (other currencies)

Applicable for Shares, depository receipts on shares and equity rights.

For trading in other currencies, the monthly Trading Fee is recalculated to SEK at the end of the month. The daily exchange rate of the last trading day of the month, as published by the central bank of Sweden (Sveriges Riksbank), will be used as basis for conversion.

After the conversion, the trading member may choose between two options with regards to the invoicing. If not actively chosen by the trade participant, option 1 will be applied.

Option 1. One invoice in SEK

Trading in other currencies will be converted to SEK as stated above and added to any turnover in SEK. The trading fee schedule will be applied to the total trading and the trading participant will receive one collective invoice in SEK.

Example: A trading participant has a monthly turnover in SEK of 90.000.000 and in addition a monthly turnover in DKK of 80.000.000. (in this example transaction fees are not included) The monthly turnover in DKK is recalculated to SEK and added to the turnover in SEK. The total trading fee will then be calculated as follows:

SEK/DKK 1,4

$90.000.000 + (80.000.000 \times 1,4) = 202.000.000 \text{ SEK}$

$(0,25\% \times 100.000.000) + (0,08\% \times 100.000.000) + (0,015\% \times 2.000.000)$

Option 2. One invoice for each currency

Trading in other currencies will be converted to SEK as in option 1 above.

The total trading fee will then be applied to the turnover in SEK first and then the turnover in other currencies respectively. Finally, the trading fee that applies to the recalculated turnover in other currencies will be recalculated back from SEK to other currencies. The trading participant will receive one invoice for each currency.

Example: A trading participant has a monthly turnover in SEK of 90.000.000, a monthly turnover in DKK of 80.000.000 and a monthly turnover in NOK of 40.000.000. (Transaction fees are not included in this example) The monthly turnover in DKK and NOK is recalculated to SEK and added to the turnover in SEK. The trading fee will then be calculated as follows:

SEK/DKK 1,4

SEK/NOK 1

$80.000.000 \text{ (DKK)} \times 1,4 = 112.000.000 \text{ SEK}$

$40.000.000 \text{ (NOK)} \times 1 = 40.000.000 \text{ SEK}$

Total: $90.000.000 + 112.000.000 + 40.000.000 = 242.000.000 \text{ SEK}$

Schedule B

SEK: $(0,35\% \times 90.000.000)$

DKK: $((0,35\% \times 10.000.000) + (0,12\% \times 100.000.000) + (0,04 \times 2.000.000)) / 1,4$

NOK: $(0,04 \times 40.000) / 1$
